

Mary N. Chaney, Esq., CISSP, has over 20 years of information security, information technology, and legal experience. She graduated from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio with her B.S.B.A in Information Systems. She received her J.D. degree from Texas Southern University Thurgood Marshall School of Law and is a licensed attorney in the State of Texas.

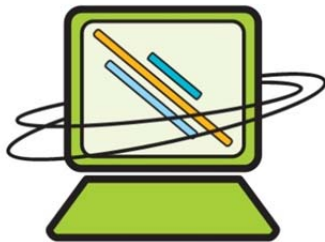

Ms. Chaney spent several years practicing law in Washington, DC focusing primarily on anti-trust and intellectual property rights infringement cases. She then transitioned to serve her country by becoming a Special Agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

While with the FBI in Los Angeles she investigated all types of cyber related criminal activities, including denial of service attacks, computer intrusions, internet piracy, intellectual property theft, and copyright infringement. Ms. Chaney also served as the Information Systems Security Officer for the FBI in Los Angeles.

Ms. Chaney obtained her Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) certification in 2008 and opened MBS Information Security Consulting, LLC (MBS) shortly thereafter with the ambition of using all of her experience and knowledge to assist businesses with their information security needs.

MBS provides consulting, training, and outsourcing services in all things related to securing people, facilities, equipment, materials, information, activities or operations. MBS is a value engineering company that believes that the reduction of enterprise risk directly affects the bottom line. Information Security is a process that helps understand risk across the entire organization and is a group of strategies, policies, rules, guidelines and procedures that are put in place to systematically reduce enterprise risk to an acceptable level.
